

EASTER 2012

EL RANCHO / EASTER FRIENDS AND FAMILY WEEKEND GETAWAY / APRIL 5-9, 2012

What's new?

El Rancho has a rich and long-standing tradition of inviting friends and families to gather in this beautiful place to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Continuing in this tradition, I am very excited to announce something NEW for Easter.

This year, El Rancho will be offering two separate Easter programmes that will replace Genfest, our traditional Easter teaching conference:

The first programme is an Easter Kid's Weekend for children ages 7-12 years old. This new residential camp will be centered on telling children the powerful story of Easter and laying out the implications this story has on their life today. Registration and camp details can be found at: www.elrancho.co.nz.

The second programme we are rolling out this Easter is a "Friends and Family Weekend Getaway". We will be opening up our Holiday Park and Elm Conference Center to be booked out for the holiday weekend as we do during our summer motor camp season. We have also added some extras to help make this weekend special (details included).

We invite everyone to join us this Easter to enjoy great accommodation, our beautiful retreat center, and Christian fellowship.
